No	Agenda Items	Time	Lead	Summary Meeting Notes
1.	Welcome and introductions Team Building	9:00	Sara WHY Co-Chair	Introductions were made by attendees. This meme was shared by Kersten Tano:
2.	HCA Fellowship Program	9:20	Alicia and Fellows	Alicia and the fellows presented a brief history of the program, how the program is structured, adjustments occurring since the inception of the program, data collection on the fellows' confidence level on various prevention topics, and the future of the program. The presentation was sent out one week prior to the meeting.

3.	Poison Center Report Update	9:40	Alex	Alex shared that the 2019 reports have not been completed; but, one one-pager concerning looking at a comparison of 2019 to 2020 data on the first 180 days of each year has been completed. One point of concern was a 10% increase in substance related suicides. Alex provided the link to the one pager: https://www.wapc.org/programs/covid-19-resources-information/ Alex and the Poison Center have been doing a lot of webinar training. If anyone would like to join a webinar or would like to suggest a training subject area, please contact Alex.
4.	Legislative Update	10:00	Julie	Julie reviewed the 2020 session and what may be coming up for the 2021 session. Julie shared how COVID-19 affected the 2020 session and various shifts in the process due to the pandemic. The resulting budget changes, the advent of possible special sessions, reliable information regarding a third federal stimulus bill, as well as other factors are still being worked on. Challenging times are ahead of us. Other information can be found at https://healthygen.org/resources/. Email Julie if you would like to receive Health Policy News.
5.	Hot Topics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Statewide Collisions Report</li> <li>• Terminology Survey Update</li> <li>• COVID-19 effects on MJ and Alcohol use</li> <li>• USAPA</li> <li>• Attorney General Association Cannabis Law and Policy Summit</li> </ul>	10:20	Dave Discussion Sara Alex Scott	Statewide Collisions Report: Dave shared items of interest from the Excel spreadsheet sent to members last week: contacts are down, DUI collisions are down. Dave reached out to local agencies and found there was a 25-50% increase of domestic violence calls. Dave presented current data on WSP PowerBi looking at speed and collision patterns since COVID-19, impaired collisions, and more. Terminology Survey Update: The limited feedback from the survey with various comments. What do members think about sharing now in light of COVID and taking into consideration the comments on the survey. Sara asked what attendees their opinion on what we should do with the document at this time? Members comments included <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Taking the document to SPE Consortium</li> <li>• Holding on changing the document</li> <li>• Asking how is the terminology changing in light of the COVID pandemic.</li> </ul> Members agreed take up the conversation in October. We would ideally find an article that succinctly handles the history of the term marijuana and add a bullet point acknowledging that history and linked to that document. Martha was asked for find the link to a broader document. Attorney General Association Cannabis Law and Policy Summit: Scott presented information shared at the summit. He shared some interesting statistics from one of the sessions. Sara recommended looking at the statistics on advertising. Sara will provide the slide deck to Martha to post on the WHY page on

				Athena. Sara will also post to the Announcements page on Athena. USAPA: Sara and Julee attended last week. There was a line-up of amazing line up of presenters. There were breakout sessions with various state representatives with the opportunity to share activity between states. www.alcoholpolicy.org/events-1 Going forward, there is an opportunity for action. Sara is looking for members who might be interested in sitting in on the discussions. Please contact Sara to get invited to the discussions.. Volunteers: Martha June 4 is the next session. COVID-19 effects on MJ and Alcohol use: What affects are different agencies are seeing? What can WHY take action on? Sara suggested that an email conversation might be appropriate and that it be added to next WHY agenda.
