No	Agenda Items	Time	Lead	Summary Meeting Notes
1.	Welcome, introductions and Team Building	9:05	Kasey Kates WHY Co-Chair	Question of the Day: • If you could take a paid year off from work, what would you do?
2.	Alcohol and Cannabis research implications for policy making	9:20	Sarah Okey and Steve Ziegler, LCB	Sarah shared about the new Research Unit. The unit is looking to plant and grow to become a center of research excellence. The unit is looking to provide data driven information on public health and well-being related to the substances the LCB regulates . She reviewed the unit's values, history of the unit, the types of research areas that will provide the most value to the agency and community, and some of the

			ongoing projects. Sarah asked members how and what research would be helpful to members' work. Members had an opportunity to ask questions When is it expected that data will be available? Sara and the unit will be able to investigate research questions by summer 2024. The unit is looking to update a website with data and article review. Members asked about efficacy, regulations that need to be strengthened, as well as how to do the work in a more effective way and conflict of interest between the LCB and the industry. Members were concerned about mental health on college campuses, reducing harms, the efficacy of therapy, and assessing consequences and addressing those concerns. Action: How can WHY members support your work? What research have members looked for but not found for policy making in WA?
3.	Breakout Rooms: Building Capacity for WHY in 2024 - Making a plan to do the plan	9:40	Kasey Kates Mary Segawa WHY Co- chairs Groups considered the following questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>❖ Looking back at the past year. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▶ What are the benefits you have experienced over the last year as a member of WHY?</li> <li>▶ WHY is focused on driving down underage drinking and cannabis use. Related to this, what words would you use to describe the purpose of WHY?</li> <li>▶ How does the work you do outside of WHY both bring value to the Coalition and bring value to your daily work?</li> </ul> </li> <li>❖ Looking forward to the next year. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▶ Review the list the Action Plan tactics and identify areas where you have interest as well as willingness to be engaged in future action.</li> <li>▶ In those areas of interest, what are action steps you see to take to move the work forward?</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Debrief: Group 1: Bringing youth to the data conversation, what information do we want to gather from youth Group 2: Opportunities to hear what is happening, knowing we can't treat our way out but that prevention is the way; communications team does a lot of great work, do we need to make sure that the Teams cover more subject areas? Taking time to reflect on what groups within agencies can use the information shared at WHY. How do we bring the conversation back to primary prevention?

				At the next meeting, we will start creating a plan for the plan. Action: What is WHY working on related to reducing youth alcohol and cannabis use?
4.	Communications Team Cannabinoid Team	10:10	Kendra Harrison	September/October meeting updates Communications Team: Prevention History Timeline document is being worked on and updated.
