

How do I "Menti"?

To interact in this Currents activity:

1. Open any web browser from any item (Phone, computer, etc)
2. Go to www.menti.com
3. Type in the code at the top of your screen
4. Be ready! Your screen will change as we change the screen:)

24

30

12

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Caring people

Community connection

Resilient when a crisis arises

School and law enforcement support

Lots of passionate community member and community partners in existence. Many people wanting to help.

Supportive

We had a solid group of very active coalition members with strong Tribal representation.

Community Partnerships

Supports youth

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Community outreach

Close knit

dedicated community members advocating for youth and equity

Really strong partnerships

Care about youth

Strong support of youth

Passionate community members

Supportive People

Togetherness

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Close families

Great community connection

Diversity of income

Partnerships

Willingness to come together

Diversity and community organizations

Strong community connection

Family values

Community connection

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Strong Partnerships Between Non-Profits

Engagement with underserved youths.

There are a lot of people and organizations that care about community youth and their future.

Community Support

We are each other's resources.

Prevention support

Our community cares about each other, close knit!

connection

Work Well Together

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Traditions

Deep care for youth.

Sense of community/closeness

Desire for healthy children

Close knit community

Long history of school-based prevention; Student Assistance Programs

High level of concern about drug use impact

School is a respected community pillar passion

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

community based organizations serving ethnic specific populations

A community that is focused on substance use prevention

Look out for each other

Community members that care.

Our community rallies behind people in need

Tradition

Programs that have a passion for working on prevention and recovery

"Village" mentality

community oriented

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Commitment to Community and love for kids

Small town with a lot of caring, dedicated people.

Unspoiled nature

Supportive parents

Supportive and giving community

School and police support and partnerships

Abundance of opportunities for youth

Family centered

Small close knit community bond

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Care for youth

willingness to collaborate

Lack of resources means people rely on their neighbors for help.

Educational Service District

Community collaboration

Group of caring adults

Actively engaged city council members community pride/belonging very supportive of schools

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

community togetherness

Community involvement

Partnerships

Strong Desire to Change

Support of high-risk kiddos

Many advocates for you and families

Community Network of helpful individuals small business support

Free meeting space

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Diversity in our community racially, ethnically, socio economic status, gender, and sexual orientation

Innovation and Strength as well as Resiliency.

identified with the community - sense of we are the community

Welcoming school administration

Many non-profits mission driven to support families

Strong religious ties

Receptive school district

Awesome Super Hero Like Adults, minus the capes.

Partnering with one another

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Resources

youth importance

Community conversations

Small, rural Island with a strong community-mindedness. We look out for each other. Pro-active when new concerns arise.

Active PTO/A at the elementary levels, after school activities and clubs for students

proximity to nature

My community has a lot of pride, and though there are a lot of local conditions that are cause for concern, there are a lot of people dedicated to making it better.

resilience

Faith and family values

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

support

great community partnerships

Strong partnerships had begun. Resolute commitment to community growth.

Community traditions

Passion to help kids

close-knit

culture

Diversity

strong supportive caring individuals

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Motivation to create community and recreational options

Desire to support youth of color and reduce violence.

Tribal Partners Working With Community

Resiliency

Support for all community, lifespan.

Already knew each other

Caring Adultssmall town with many after school sports opportunities

Supportive community town supports youth activities

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

strength

A strong sense of community and a sense of care about one another.

Willingness to work together

Strong community communication

We had strong community connection, community traditions.

Solution focused.

A focus on youth togetherness and wellness willingness to change

In an emergency the community always rally

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

supportive community members

Strong community leadership

Respect for law enforcement and community leaders

Elder Care

Resiliency

The school district

solid, committed fiscal agent

Multigenerational efforts full of love and kindness

Strengthening Families

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Family Night Out program

Red Ribbon Week

Middle School health teachers welcome SPORT instruction for all grades all year

Social Host Ordinance

Love and Logic

Healing of the Canoe

Guiding Good Choices now offered through Parks & Recreation programs

Parenting Wisely

Youth Mentoring

FOUNDATIONS - Please share a strength or two that your community already has before your coalition was formed.

Student Advocacy

Cannabis retailers willing to talk joint prevention efforts bonding and prosocial involvement

Resilience for youth, families, teachers opportunities for involvement

Strong family bonds

Youth advocacy development

bonding opportunities

Family communication

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Drug Take Back Day

Drug Take Back

Strengthening Families

our coalition membership

Collaborations

LifeSkills

Strong collaboration

Public Awareness

Suicide prevention

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Safe after-grad, safe after-prom, pro-social family opportunities

New Partners

Take back day

Nurse Family Partnership

Domestic violence

LifeSkills!

youth mentoring program

Drug Take Back

School-based services were easy because of ESD and school partnership

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Take Back Day

PAX and Educational Workshops

Strengthening Families in Spanish

Kids in nature programs

Positive Action

Public awareness and involvement

community events

Medication Lock Boxes

We are still building on this

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Youth group

Positive Norms

We've added a number of indigenous programs and strategies, like the GONA and Parenting with Tradition (Positive Indian Parenting).

Strengthening Families

strengthening families

Parenting Programs

Take back day

Strengthening Families

Parenting Wisely

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Community based mentoring

Sources of Strength

Community Center location

Local Business are now involved in Prevention Efforts

Drug take back event

Coalition collaboration

Police and Fire partnerships

Hip Hop to Prevent Substance Abuse and HIV

Invested Law Enforcement for Drug Take Backs

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

PAX- early education prevention

Guiding Good Choices

Safe and Sober Night

Our prevention club at the middle school draws island mentors from the community.

Youth involvement

Communities in Schools!

Starts With One

Hello Neighbor Newsletter

Mentoring

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

National Drug Take Back day, collaboration with the local pharmacy

Family friendly events

Town Halls

Family Resource Fair

Strengthening Families Program

Youth Prevention coalition

100 jobs for 100 kids

leveraged resources

Parenting Education including Guiding Good Choices in multiple languages

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

the coalitions togetherness and willing to help through our designed strategic plan designations.

Mentoring

The SAP

Equity of coalition leadership

parenting education

Guest speakers. (Community participation has increased)

Guiding Good Choices now offered directly in Spanish, Somali, Oromo, Amharic and Vietnamese by locally trained facilitators who speak those languages and know the communities

Buy in from many sectors

Strengthening Families Program fortified by partnership with behavioral health center

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Parenting programs

RX take back

Youth Leadership

Healing of the Canoe

New coalition- still figuring out internal strengths and partnerships. School based events seem to be better received and we can fund more!

youth support groups

Take Back Day

National Night Out

Strong supports from schools for prevention and intervention

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Community Events because people show up.

Parent and Family Education- SFP, Incredible years,

School-based SAPs and Prevention/Intervention Specialists

School involvement in the community

Lock boxes

collaboration

Too Good for Drugs Program

Community and youth involvement in policy change efforts

Medication Take Back

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

family support group for youth using

Community activities

Strong collaboration, Take Back Day, increase community awareness and support for the coalition work.

Talk. They Hear You

lots of things in Spanish

Our Youth Group

Drug Take Back

Focus on Hope Science!

Youth Peer 2Peer Education

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

Lion's Quest

Emergency services for homeless families

Traditional media and social media with prevention messages

All of them, having to be flexible during COVID

Coalition membership engagement was fast and multiple people

Most Steer Clear - Positive Norms Campaign in SE Seattle and throughout King County with other partners to get a good dose of the campaign to the community

Organizational collaboration bringing community together -

Local grants that allow us to deliver Youth Mental Health First Aid on a twice-yearly basis.

SUPPORTS – Please share one or two coalition programs or strategies that have been made stronger because of your community strengths.

having a plan together school and community engagement

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

Connection to culture and community

Community bonding!

Critical thinking skills among youth

More and better inter-family communications

Building healthy family engagement

Active youth engagement

Community Connectivity/bonding decrease approval of problem behavioral

Connection to culture for ATOD prevention

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on.

Family Bonds

Positive connections between youth and safe, healthy adults

Positive family interactions

Social norms messaging

School and LEA policy awareness and adjustment.

Adults and community members invested in youth mentorship

Family Bonds/Protective factors

Parent engagement

Keeping community informed

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

Strengthening youth programs community engagement

Community bonding and connections more youth involvement accurate knowledge of positive community norms related to marijuana use and DUI

Family Bonding

family management

Providing fun sober activities for students and families

Reducing stigma

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

Positive peer connections

Hope Science Training

Community Connectedness

Connectedness

Increasing perception of risk

Working on putting together a mentoring program and a youth coalition to enhance youth involvement

Increased risk perception

Stronger prosocial environments for students and families.

Youth Voice

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

community bonding

Reduction of Acceptability related to use of ATOD

Healthy Youth-Adult relationships

Students report opportunities for positive activities and programs.

Community resilience

youth engagement

strengthen community connections between the many service agencies and non profits

Education for youth and community members.

More healthy social gatherings

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

Resiliency for youth

Family bonding

drug free recreational opportunities

Refusal and resistance skills

Increase Family Management

Parent ed program graduates to promote new classes and refer other parents

Family bonding

Improved family interaction, support and management especially among immigrant and refugee, non English speaking families to help prevent drugs and the use of the substances that are used and being misused in the community. creating more acceptance and cultural awareness not only for tribal but for other folks/ethnicities as well. Theory's, Cultural awareness and Hope

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

social and emotional development

Community connectivity

Working build our coalition membership to match the demographics and rich diversity of our large service area.

Healthy youth school environment

Family Management Skills

Attitudes about substance use

Stronger school connections, youth involvement.

parental resilience

Youth program/mentor program

ROOFS – Please share one or two protective factors that your coalition is building or hopes to build, using existing strengths and programs built on .

Peer bonding

Family bonding

afterschool activities

culture

leadership