

Become a WASAVP member.

What does your membership support?

By becoming a WASAVP member, you will be supporting the educational outreach from the organization both in terms of educating policy makers about issues of concern to the prevention and public health field and direct coaching and technical assistance for coalitions. You can designate that your membership can be used for educational purposes only.

What do you get as a WASAVP member?

- Discounts for high quality, research-based training.
- Representation of prevention and public health interests in policy settings.
- Education and awareness regarding policy developments.
- Support system from other prevention and public health providers and systems
- WASAVP Reports – During the legislative session, these reports will be sent weekly. When the legislature is not in session, these reports will be sent monthly.

To become a WASAVP member, go to www.wasavp.org, and click on Join. Select the membership level and payment option you prefer.

Here are the different membership levels available. If you have any questions regarding membership, please contact us at preventionfirst@wasavp.org and a WASAVP board member will follow up with you as soon as possible.
