Logic Model

A diagram of the theory of how a program is supposed to work

A graphic depiction of relationships between activities and results

Outcome

Increase knowledge on death and dying process Increase knowledge regarding grief process Allow emotional & physical release Increase peace & resolution Increase communication Recognize grief triggers Increase coping skills Reduce Isolation Find meaning Develop personal adjustment skills

Maintain relationship with deceased Utilize experience to help others Deal with stress more effectively Develop healthy boundaries Strengthen familial bonds Establish support network Benefit from experience Decrease PTSD of grief Develop new identity

life skills

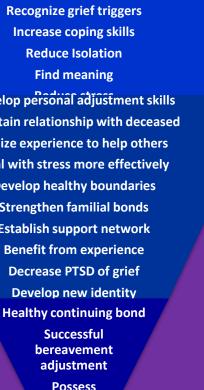

Support of Medicare Internal policy changes Competing agencies Economic barriers Bad Economy Low Census Culture

Process

Internal Partnerships Money & Time Knowledge Base Experience Research Base Materials Staff

Facilitate Support Group Educate & Support Staff Create Opportunity to Network Bereavement Resource Manual 3-hour quarterly classes 30 minute audio CD 6 disc CD prep for end of life Quarterly Newsletter Quarterly candle ceremony Post Bereavement Assessment Educate & Support Families Deliver Services Conduct Phone Calls 1:1 Counseling Referral

> Families of patients Community at large Friends of patients Organizations University Patient

Runs smoothly & meets needs

Utilize services for grief & not other issues

Appropriate timing in grief

process

In compliance with Medicare

Participants open & engaged

Support of administration

SW follow through

Staff educated & trained

Staff buy-in