

CDC Alcohol Program's 20th Anniversary Celebration
November 4, 2021
1:00 – 2:00 pm Eastern

Welcome

Marissa Esser, PhD, CDC Alcohol Program Lead

Opening Remarks: Addressing Excessive Alcohol Use as a Risk Factor for Chronic Disease Prevention

Karen Hacker, MD, Director of the National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion

Reducing Excessive Alcohol Use to Improve Population Health

Kurt Greenlund, PhD, Epidemiology and Surveillance Branch Chief

Establishing the Alcohol Program at CDC

Robert Brewer, MD, Former CDC Alcohol Program Lead and Captain in the US Public Health Service (Retired)

The CDC Alcohol Program: Past and Present

Marissa Esser, PhD, CDC Alcohol Program Lead

Preventing Excessive Drinking Across the Lifespan: Underage Drinking

Michele Bohm, MPH, Epidemiologist with the Alcohol Program

Closing Remarks: Looking Ahead

Marissa Esser, PhD, CDC Alcohol Program Lead

Q & A