Annual Conference and Professional Development Meeting
Virtual/Online, Friday, May 7, 2021

PART ONE: ZOOM WEBINAR FORMAT, SPOTLIGHT ON OUT-OF-STATE SPEAKERS/EXPERTISE

9:00 a.m. - 9:05 a.m. Introduction/Welcome

Jason Kilmer, Ph.D.

Chairperson, College Coalition for Substance Abuse Prevention
Associate Professor, Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences, University of Washington

9:05 a.m. – 10:20 a.m. Remotely Controlled: Collaborating to Create a Better Future For All

Allison M. Smith, Ph.D.

Senior Program Administrator, Board of Regents, State of Louisiana
This presentation will encourage attendees to reflect upon, assess and strategize about the future of prevention in higher education. We will also discuss how the ideals of equity, inclusion and access can impact recruitment and retention -- for both students and staff alike.

10:20 a.m.-10:30 a.m. Break

10:30 a.m.- 11:45 a.m. Up, Down, and All Around: Substance Use Prevention from Framework to Action

Alicia Baker, MA, MPH, CHES

Assistant Director, GatorWell Health Promotion Services, University of Florida
From the 30,000 foot view to ground level, this session will walk participants through the role of health promotion in substance use prevention, substance use prevention in relation to holistic student well-being efforts, SAMHSA's Strategic Prevention Framework and other public health models, and practitioner use of ColledgeAIM.

11:45 a.m.-1:00 p.m. Break for lunch

PART TWO: ZOOM WEBINAR FORMAT, SPOTLIGHT ON IN-STATE SPEAKERS/EXPERTISE

1:00 p.m.-1:50 p.m. Prevention Priorities for Young Adults During (and After) COVID-19: Relationships Between Substance Use, Mental Health, CDC Guideline Adherence, and Social Norms

Scott Graupensperger, Ph.D.

Acting Assistant Professor, Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences, University of Washington
This presentation will explore health-related behaviors of young adults during the COVID-19 pandemic; including interrelatedness of stressors, substance use and CDC guideline adherence. It will also examine the role of inaccurate perceptions of social norms.

1:50 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. Break

2:00 p.m. - 2:50 p.m. Are College Campuses Prepared for the Emerging Nicotine and Cannabis Product Landscape?

Jacob Delbridge, MPH

Policy, Systems & Environmental Changes Coordinator
Youth Cannabis & Commercial Tobacco Prevention, Washington State Dept. of Health
Newly developed and fast-emerging nicotine and cannabis products continue to be sold in-store and online in communities across the state, country, and globe. We'll explore examples of product innovation and the work of state policies to try to protect residents from new and persistent public health threats.

2:50 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. Break

PART THREE: ZOOM MEETING FORMAT (SEPARATE LINK)

3:00 p.m. –
up to 4:30 p.m. Check-in, program sharing, idea sharing, emerging needs and topics, break-out rooms moderated/facilitated by CCSAP steering committee, members, and return to main meeting for wrap up

The College Coalition for Substance Abuse Prevention (CCSAP) thanks the Division of Behavioral Health and Recovery for their generous support of CCSAP activities.
